Corsets for Tennis

Tennis is no longer a young girl's game. Women of every age and figure play this lively and fascinating game. Some of the best tennis players in Washington enjoy the game more, and are able to play longer, because they wear our special corset.

It conforms to the rules of the game, and will go through the most trying set without making you conscious of its being there with you, to keep you cool and your body supported.

The elastics are full of live rubber—the material, an open mesh, is flexible; so are the bones. The bust line is not high, and no amount of exercise will cause the corset to slip up on your body—a most uncomfortable sensation.

Tennis is popular this season, and the women who wear this corset will enjoy every set they play. It is ideal for this sport.
